

Temple Beth Torah

Yom Kippur

September 16
10 Tishri 5782

“We renew our bonds
to those who have gone
the way of all the earth...
those whose memory moves us this day...”

When Yizkor is recited, we affirm our love of those
So near and dear who have physically left us.

Our love, however, does not rest on physical being;
It is deeper than that.

When we love, we love the inner being of the beloved,
the quality that makes for uniqueness,
the spirit that creates personality and character.

That does not ever disappear.
It remains with us as long as we live.

Time eases the pain of the loss
but does not erode the affection and emotions we feel for the one who no longer moves about in our midst.

We know that whatever lives, someday must die.
That, however, is true only of the material world.
The spiritual can endure forever.

When we lose one who is dear, we mourn,
but we must not mourn excessively.
We must be grateful for what we have had
And find comfort in our memories.

We must continue the task of living, paying tribute to our departed by contributing to the lives of others.

A Child's Prayer at Yizkor

I miss you. You gave me my life. You were my protector, my teacher, my moral compass, my comfort. I feel so alone without you. No one worries about me the way you did. No one loves me the way you did. Please forgive me for the times I caused you pain, and for the times I took you for granted. I can't begin to fathom all the sacrifices you made for my sake. I want to thank you for all the ways you blessed my life. Nothing can replace the gaping hole your death has left in my life. But mixed together with all my sadness, there is a great joy for having known you. I will remember your smile, your touch. I will remember your laughter, your kindness, your generosity, your determination, your love. Thank you for the time we shared, for the love you gave, for the wisdom you spread. I will always treasure the lessons you taught me. I will carry them with me all the days of my life. I am so proud to be your child. May God watch over you and bless you, with gentleness and with love as you. As you blessed me: Rest in peace.

A Yizkor Meditation in Memory of a Parent Who Was Hurtful

Dear God,

You know my heart. Indeed, You know me better than I know myself, so I turn to you before I rise for Kaddish.

My emotions swirl as I say this prayer. The parent I remember was not kind to me. His/her death left me with a legacy of unhealed wounds, of anger and of dismay that a parent could hurt a child as I was hurt.

I do not want to pretend to love, or to grieve that I do not feel, but I do want to do what is right as a Jew and as a child.

Help me, O God, to subdue my bitter emotions that do me no good, and to find that place in myself where happier memories may lie hidden, and where grief for all that could have been, all that should have been, may be calmed by forgiveness, or at least soothed by the passage of time.

I pray that You, who raise up slaves to freedom will liberate me from the oppression of my hurt and anger, and that You will lead me from this desert to Your holy place.

This Is My Prayer

This is my prayer to You, my God:
Let not my spirit wither and shrivel
in its thirst for You and lose the dew
with which You sprinkled it when I was young.

May my heart be open
to every broken soul,
to orphaned life,
to every stumbler
wandering unknown
and groping in the shadows.

Bless my eyes, purify me to see
man's beauty rise in the world,
and the glory of my people in its redeemed land
spreading its fragrance over all the earth.

Deepen and broaden my senses
to absorb a fresh
green, flowering world,
to take from it the secret
of blossoming in silence.

Grant strength to yield fine fruits,
quintessence of my life,
steeped in my very being,
without expectation of reward.

And when my time comes -
let me slip into the night
demanding nothing, God, of man, or of You.

- Hillel Bavli
